

CARS, GOLF, HOOPS & MORE ON DECK AT ST. JOSEPH HOME

Spring is here and St. Joe's is excited about some upcoming events that will benefit the children who live in, or are involved in programs at its facility at 2823 Frankfort Avenue.

On Sunday, April 26, the First Annual "Cars for a Cause Car Show" will be held from noon until 6 pm. (Rain date, May 3). The show will feature all models of cars and motorcycles, classics and new vehicles. Registration begins at 10 am, with a fee of $20.00 for each vehicle. Parking is $5 per car, and food is provided at a minimal cost.

On Sunday evening and all day Monday, May 17 and 18, St. Joe's will assist Tim Coury at Po (at 2730 Frankfort Avenue) with his annual Porcini Oxmoor Charity Golf Outing and Cocktail Auction, benefitting the Porcini Children's Charity. This foundation benefits various children's charities all over Louisville, including St. Joe's kids.

On Saturday, June 20, CABO-WABO (Charity and Benefit Organization - We are better off) will hold its twice-a-year event in the Bowman Field Hangar. June's event will assist St. Joe's Kids.

On Saturday, June 11, St. Joe's is thrilled to be host to the 2009 Louisville Hoopfest, a 3 on 3 basketball tournament. Plan to spend the day with your family; there will be fun for all, including basketball games, concessions, other games and inflatables.

Last but not least, the Annual Orphans' Picnic weekend is just around the corner. On Friday, August 7, Friday Night Live! will be held, with live music and concessions from 5:00 - 10:00 PM. A St. Joe's Alumni Reunion will also be held at this time. On Saturday, August 8, the Annual Orphans' Picnic will be held from noon until midnight.

St. Joe's has three programs; the Residential Treatment Program, Foster Care and Adoption Program, and the Child Development Center.
